After Action Report for Coronado Monument 10/17/15

Event

The event was the Fiesta of Cultures at Coronado Monument. It was a Saturday one-day event. Many vendors and performers also attended. The weather was very nice this year, not too hot and not too cold. Visitor attendance to our camp was great and their interest was very good too.

Saturday

Muster

On Saturday we mustered 7 people: David and Victoria Kubica, Anthony Campisi, James Cruzan, Mike Bilbo, Bill Jackson, and David Poulin.

Our encampment.

Victoria explains the pikes.

James shows how a musket works.

On to the swords...

...and back to the pikes.

No mosquetero is fully equipped without his sword and dagger.

Mike explains that helmets and jerkins are very important too.

We have a new recruit.

Dave Kubica

Victoria 'Vic' Kubica.

Bill Jackson, the fifer.

Mike Bilbo, smile please.

James prepares to make some noise

Those new style uniforms will never catch on.

The junior ROTC learns about real warfare.

Now it's the Boy Scouts' turn. Mike and Victoria describe the genre.

David chats with visitors.

Conclusion

It was our best event yet at Coronado Monument. Photos by Dave.
